Course Description:

This course offers an in-depth exploration of the strategic dynamics and economic principles underlying China's global business expansion. Students will analyze how different types of businesses, from burgeoning private firms to expansive state-owned and multinational corporations, adapt and strategize within China's complex economic, political, and legal frameworks. The curriculum highlights the critical role of market transitions, the rural and urban economy, labor markets, and the financial and knowledge-based sectors, supplemented by case studies on sectors like social media and telecommunications. Additionally, the course covers international trade, investment, and sustainability issues, providing insights into China's strategic management and innovation through real-world examples of joint ventures, strategic alliances, and mergers and acquisitions. This comprehensive overview is designed for students aiming to acquire a nuanced understanding of doing business in and with China in today's interconnected global environment.

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to uphold the university's academic honesty principles which are an integral part of the university's core values and principles. If a student fails to observe the acceptable standards of academic honesty, they could attract penalties and even disqualification from the course in more serious circumstances. Students are responsible for knowing and observing accepted principles of research, writing and any other task which they are required to complete.

Academic dishonesty or cheating includes acts of plagiarism, misrepresentation, fabrication, failure to reference materials used properly and forgery. These may include, but are not limited to: claiming the work of others as your own, deliberately applying false and inaccurate information, copying the work of others in part or whole, allowing others in the course to copy your work in part or whole, failing to appropriately acknowledge the work of other scholars/authors through acceptable referencing standards, purchasing papers or writing papers for other students and submitting the same paper twice for the same subject.

This Academic Integrity policy applies to all students of the Zhejiang University in all programs of study, including non-graduating students. It is to reinforce the University's commitment to maintain integrity and honesty in all academic activities of the University community.

Policy

The foundation of good academic work is honesty. Maintaining academic integrity upholds the standards of the University. The responsibility for maintaining integrity in all the activities of the academic community lies with the students as well as the faculty and the University. Everyone in this community must work together to ensure that the values of truth, trust and justice are upheld.

Academic dishonesty affects the University's reputation and devalues the degrees offered. The University will impose serious penalties on students who are found to have violated this policy. The following penalties may be imposed:

- ✓ Expulsion
- ✓ Suspension
- ✓ Zero mark /fail grade
- ✓ Marking down
- ✓ Re-doing/re-submitting of assignments or reports, and
- ✓ Verbal or written warning
